Postgraduate Mobility (Inbound) Program of Universiti Islam Sultan Sharif Ali (UNISSA)

Halal Products Research Institute (HPRI) Universiti Putra Malaysia (UPM) has recently received 5 mobility (inbound) postgraduate students from Universiti Islam Sultan Sharif Ali (UNISSA) Brunei Darussalam. The postgraduate students consist of a PhD student, a master's in Research, and 3 master's students in Coursework and Dissertation. Program advisor and Deputy Director, Halal Products Research Institute (HPRI), Assoc. Prof. Dr. Nitty Hirawaty Kamarulzaman hopes that this program will provide new knowledge and experience on the halal industry in Malaysia and Brunei. "To mobility students, I hope that greater exposure in the field of halal will inspire the students to continue to study and expand knowledge of halal between the two countries," he said. The 14-day program runs from September 29 to October 13, 2019, at the Halal Products Research Institute and on the campus of Universiti Putra Malaysia (UPM) Serdang. The program is expected to provide new ideas and experiences in strengthening the halal industry between the two countries.

Halal Executive Course Series-4

Halal Products Research Institute (HPRI) was formally designated by JAKIM as the Halal Training Center (PLH) under the Halal Professional Council (HPB) (Reference No: JAKIM.HH.900-5 / 54/7 (3)) on May 16, 2017 based on the commitment, integrity and credibility of HPRI to conduct halal training for Malaysian food industry players.

Halal Executive course is developed to provide the latest inputs and information on halal standards and procedures and halal issues that are essential for a halal executive to increase his knowledge, skills and expertise in performing his/her duties and role as a competent and professional halal executive.

This course is divided into two main components, the theory and practice components that take 70 hours. The course will be held every weekend (Saturday and Sunday) for six (6) weeks in order to target trainees who are individuals and workers from various industries who are interested in participating in the course without constraints.

The trainees will be awarded the Halal Executive Certificate once all the conditions and requirements of a halal executive have been met. The implementation of this Halal Executive Course will be facilitated by the officers and staff from Laboratory of Halal Services (LPH), in collaboration with UPM's registered teaching academic. Also contributing to the cooperation is UPM Education and Training (UPMET) which is also a registered agency under the Ministry of Finance Malaysia and the Ministry of Human Resources under the Human Resources Development Fund (HRDF) scheme as required by JAKIM to each PLH.

Halal Executive Courses Series-1, Series-2, Series-3 and Series-4 have been successfully implemented throughout the years 2018 and 2019. Successful and effective implementation of the previous participants provided the objective of organizing the course successfully.
